DEMOCRATS NOMINATE WILSON AND MARSHALL BY ACCLAMATIVE VOTE

BOTH NOMINATIONS ARE CARRIED BY ACCLAMATION WHEN OPPONENTS OF MARSHALL FAIL TO MATERIALIZE AT LAST MOMENT.

W. J. BRYAN ADDRESSES CONVENTION

ST. LOUIS June 15.—President Wilson was renominated for the Presidency by the Democratic National Convention at 11:52 tonight by acclamation. The renomination of Vice President Marshall also by acclamation, followed immediately.

The convention convened shortly after 9 o'clock and announcement was made that the session would be held until the nominations were completed with all other business. Practically all of the vice presidential booms had been killed.

The coliseum was packed before the convention opened and firemen took charge of the doors and refused to admit any more persons. W. J. Bryan was among those on the outside, but finally got in. The rules were suspended and a request was made for him to address the convention. A few scattering "noes" were heard. He was introduced as America's leading Democrat. Bryan said: "You may take all of the administrations from the beginning of the history of this republic and not find as many laws written upon the statue books that were of as great importance to the people as you will find written by Woodrow Wilson, a Democratic president."

He referred to the tariff, the Federal Reserve law, strengthening of anti-trust laws, and other legislation. While he was speaking, word came that there were 200 Democratic leaders marooned on the outside unable to gain admission. Charles E. Murphy, Tammany leader, struggled for an hour before getting through the lines.

As Judge Westcott completed his speech, nominating Wilson a great demonstration followed. Flashlights glared, flags paraded and bands played "The Star Spangled Banner" as a high banner bearing the president's likeness was unfurled from the roof. The crowd rose to its feet and the state delegations paraded. After it had subsided, Senator Hughes renewed the clamor by leading three cheers for Wilson. "Dixie" and other melodies were sung including "How Dry I Am." The Resolution's approval of the platform is expected before midnight. The band turned to "Tipperary" and the crowd joined. Some of the delegates hesitated to draw pop bottles and then went back into the demonstration.

At 12:31 the convention adjourned until 11 a. m. because the platform committee was not ready to report. The leaders of woman suffrage were disappointed when it was learned that the resolution of the sub-committee that the question of once submitted to the people of the various states by their respective legislatures would probably carry.

There was absolutely no attempt to control the demonstrative crowd. Men and women flocked to the platform and the press galleries. The police were powerless. The crowd roared at several women who held yellow suffragist parades over the head of Representative Heflin of Alabama, one of the most vigorous "ants" in Congress. He appeared to enjoy the situation. Robert Burke, a delegate from Illinois, voiced the only opposition to the president. He was elected as an independent.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Reports reaching the White House that some of the Democratic leaders at St. Louis favored making the president's Americanism plank less specific in the denunciation of the activities of foreign born citizens led to a declaration by administration officials that Wilson would not be content with such a modification. Should persistent opposition develop, they said that the president might ask that the convention remain in session until he could make a personal appeal.

Later the President's representatives in St. Louis telephoned him assurances that the plank would be adopted exactly as it was approved at the White House. The plank would charge conspiracy on the part of some foreign born citizen to participate in politics and influence foreign internal affairs in the interest of the foreign governments. In addition it would condemn any organization countenancing such and failing to repudiate it. The plank was vigorously and emphatically phrased.

Kaiser Wilhelm's Anniversary.

Washington State Bankers.

AMSTERDAM, June 15.—A short patch from Berlin says: Today, on the 50th anniversary of Kaiser Wilhelm II's accession to the throne, the Emperor was to have been 100. The meeting opening of the 50th anniversary of the Washington State Bankers' association. The gathering was opened with an address to the Emperor's own speech of welcome to the 50th anniversary. There was a liberal display of the 50th anniversary by Thomas H. national colors as a reminder of the Boston's 50th anniversary. Following the anniversary, all of the newspapers in charge of covering the convention took cognizance of the occasion by offering an annual address of congratulation to the president. The news of the year's anniversary will be continued under a later column.

FINANCIER RELATES INTERBOROUGH TRANSIT COMPANY'S DEALINGS WITH HIS FIRM

QUARTER MILLION TALKS

HIS TALKS WITH PRESIDENT SHOUTS COST LATTER QUARTER OF A MILLION DOLLARS AS DUE LOAN

By Associated Press
NEW YORK, June 15.—Inside financial history was revealed by J. P. Morgan as a witness before the Thompson Legislative committee. He told of the banking houses' relations with the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, in connection with the building of New York's subway. After a clash of the opposing counsels the financier declared hotly that he had been insulted. A quarter of a million dollars was received by the Morgan firm he said after several days' conference with officials of the Interborough. This was for the watchful supervision of propositions made to the company with suggestions as how to frame the company's proposals to the city.

He said a quarter of a million was talking to President Shouts after Frank R. Moss asked:

"You are captain Morgan up west worth it?" After he was assured by friends of the tactics he said, "I won't stand it; you are no nothing now. You seem to intimate I am acting up a plot to cheat the city." He said the company paid a quarter of a million for a holding route from the Interborough to the Bronx.
